BAMM (British Association for Modern Mosaic) and Topps Tiles are pleased to announce the winners of the 2009 Mega Mosaic Makers primary school competition!

Viv Johns of Topps Tiles said;

"Topps Tiles is delighted to be part of Mega Mosaic Makers. Making mosaics is all about tiles and it is exciting to see how children use them to create such wonderful art."

Prizes totalled over £2,500. In addition to the top prizes 12 schools received £50 runners up prizes & 2 entries were awarded £300 for 'highly commended'. Judge, Gary Drostle, of BAMM commented, "mosaic projects create the perfect harmony between the children's imaginative artwork and the artists design and craft expertise to realise a unique and beautiful mosaic."
